

JOIN HANDS IN PEACE AND HARMONY

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. dreamed of a day when all men, women and children would be equal, no matter what the color of their skin was. He dreamed of a peaceful nation where we all treated each other with love and kindness.

Color these hands different colors to symbolize the many different races and nationalities of people that make up our country.